For strength and continued energy for all frontline workers – grocery store, pharmacy, law enforcement, fire & rescue, and all medical personnel. Give them peace and rest.

For all the babies born in the time of COVID-19. Give their parents strength and support, and keep the families healthy until such time as they can venture outside of their bubbles.

For Bishop Taylor as he discerns the best way to lead our synod. For synod staff and council as they struggle with fewer resources and more demand for them. Give us what is needed to do your will.

For President Biden, Vice President Harris, and all our federal elected officials. Help them to have the courage and humility to work together for the good of our nation. Put an end to partisan bickering petty actions.

That bigotry, racism, white supremacy, and all the ugliness associated with it can be overcome. Help us learn to be better and to do better.

For St. Andrew's as we ease back into in-person ministry. Help us to do it carefully and safely. Bring creative ideas and solutions to us as we work to move forward, not revert to what used to be.

For scientists and researchers working on COVID and other public health issues. Bless and protect them, give them answers to the questions they are working on.

Thank you for the community of St. Andrew's and the ways in which the pastors and staff have worked to keep us connected through the last year.

For all elected officials – city, county, state, federal. Guide them, give them courage to do what is right, and help them put people over political party.

That the greed and inequities in our social fabric can be recognized and overcome. Give compassion, empathy, and courage to those holding power.

For immigrants, both those with documents and especially those without. Help us to be compassionate and caring. Bring solutions to the conditions in their home countries to allow people to stay and prosper in their own homes instead of feeling that fleeing is their only answer

Thank you for Pastor Manuel and Pastor Sarah. Keep them healthy, give them adequate rest, and bless them in this upcoming Holy Week and Easter season.

Be with those who are in financial distress, because of the pandemic or anything else. Give them support and solutions. Bring meaningful employment to those who need it.

Bless Rachel as she finishes her credential program. Give her energy, strength, and perseverance these last few months of student teaching, and bring an offer of employment for next year.

For Monie and Mo's Food Pantry, as they move forward in their first year of operation. Bless the staff, board, and volunteers and bring them the resources they need to do what they are called to do.
